

CRUSADE'S END

The first Horus Heresy omnibus Before he fell to the lure of Chaos and started a war that plunged the galaxy into darkness, Horus was mankind's greatest hero. This Horus Heresy omnibus contains the opening trilogy of the series, showing the noble Warmaster's descent into treachery and the beginnings of the conflict that would ensure his name will be remembered for as long as the Imperium stands. It was to be the dawn of a glorious new age. Following countless millennia of darkness and...

Reader's Opinions

Even if you have never heard of the tabletop game Warhammer 40k, but only saw this book because it was a long series in the sci-fi section, you are in for a great introduction. The writers, it's three short stories with three larger, begin to set the story...

The first Horus Heresy omnibus was an awesome read. But for the first short story, I already read and re-read the other ones included here, but having all of them in the same volume and reading them again in chronological order was a fantastic experience. If you love military science fiction space opera, "sword and bolter" sagas and lovecraftian...
